Dr. H. E. Watters is a man of myriad abilities. He is noted throughout the South for his executive ability. His affability has won praise from all who know him. His ability to accomplish those things that are most worthwhile and of most benefit to others makes him conform to Shakespeare's famous characterization:

*"He is a man, take him for all in all,
We shall not see his like again."*

BURLESQUE FOR SENIORS

Now we've come to the Seniors, a dignified group!
How stately their step as they forward troop.
Can it be that four years have flown away
Since first they entered?—Seems but yesterday.

Well we remember how with faltering feet
We entered rooms where Profs and pupils meet;
How we crammed that first year to be able to say
"Oui Monsieur" to Dr. Savage in French every day.

We labored in Trig, and in English we toiled
Writing long book reviews—burning mid-night oil.
Chemistry was a Jonah—how we passed no one knows;
Logic 'most had us strung up by our toes

We've featured in clubs, athletics and classes.
We've managed to pull through the deepest morasses.
But before we leave, a word just here
About some who've made up the class this year.

First, there's our president, Thurman McLean,
His wonderful looks drive the girls all insane.
And "Preacher" Pennington, of the student body,
president;
When there's something to be done, is ne er hesitant.

"Thor" Speight is the wittiest girl in school;
She is a girl who is nobody's fool.
Hal Carter's so in love with Louse Bengé
That on her words his whole fate doth hinge.

And speaking of lovers brings to my mind
Cat Stanfield and Helen—they're two of a kind.
And our social lion is Russell Reed,
In his garden of parties he allows no weed.

There is Mahel Dunn—Doctor's Club Queen,
A cuter girl you've never seen.
And queen of the U-club is dainty Lorena,
You'll always remember once you have seen her.

Queens with the Seniors are a specialty,
Tennie B. reigns o'er the Calliopean Society;
While queen of the student body is N'na,
Of all the girls you'll not see a finer.

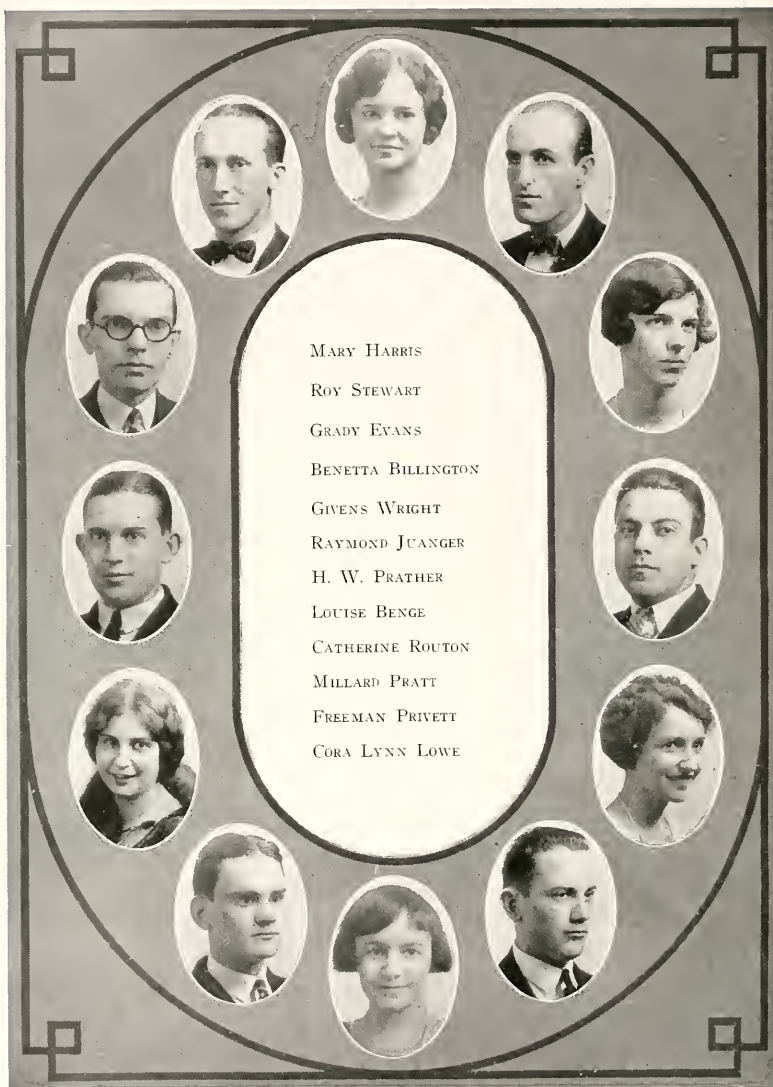

The girl we're so proud of is none other than Claire,
She's brought us more honors than anyone here.
And Raymond Tate is a regular clown,
When he's about, it's impossible to frown.

Joe Parker's the shiek when it comes to looks.
Mary Nell's a shark when it comes to books.
And there are "Poppie" and "Mommie," our
"Mr. and Mrs."
They're still so in love it makes us dizzy.

Taken all in all we're a goodly bunch,
And in days to come I have a hunch
We'll all make good in this world of ours,
Although the path is not strewn with flowers.

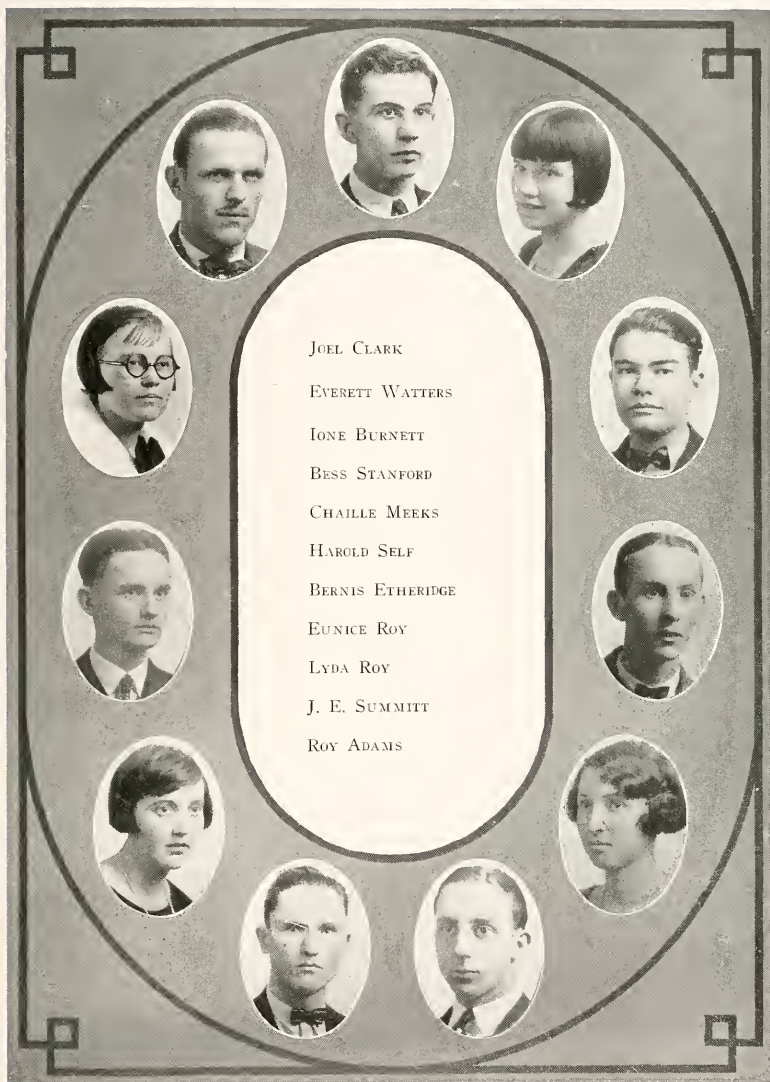

Then farewell, Union, comrades and friends,
For we must stop 'till our journey ends.
And when we've come to life's setting sun
May it be truly said of us each—"Well done."

BURLESQUE FOR JUNIOR CLASS

Here's to the Juniors, God bless 'em!
In most respectful tones we address 'em,
For have they not wisdom, dignity and grace,
And all that's becoming to ones in their place?

Look at Grady, the president, so genial and jolly,
But for all that, we know he's in love with Polly,
And Charlie Dodds is the biggest flirt
That ever made eyes at any skirt.

The man who gets Cat Routon for a wife
Ought to thank his stars the rest of his life.
They say a romantic lover is Stew,
That he writes wonderfully thrilling love lyrics to you.

Benetta is one who is always well dressed,
The boys all grant her slightest request.
Maleita Everett, too, is a popular lass,
You've got to hand it to her when it comes to class.

Aspiring maidens' hopes despairingly crash
When Everett proclaims—"Love me, love my mustache!"
One of the very nicest boys on the Hill -
Tall, dark, good-looking—that's Bill.

Mistress Mary—but not contrary—
How do your honors go?
The most beautiful girl in Union U,
And queen of A. T. O.

A jolly good fellow is Andy,
And with his feet most handy.
The G. M. S. sought a queen, and so
They bestowed that honor on Cora Lynu Lowe.

A charming and beautiful girl is Juanita,
Wherever she goes, men clamor to meet her.
"I'll try anything once, so what do I care?"
Asked Ione, as the barber 'ponjolaed' her hair.

Dorothy and Carolyn, two Louisiana girls—
With eyes of blue, and teeth like pearls.
Freeman Privett, nightwatchman so tall,
And his keen eyes skip nothing at all.

Speaking of eyes—there's Donald Hinkle,
His have the very merriest twinkle.
And Givens Wright is one of those men
Who is always just as neat as a pin.

Juniors, enjoy all you can as you go along,
For next year you'll sing the farewell song;
And your heart will break too, when on that day
They give you your diploma and send you away.

SOPHOMORES OF TWENTY-FIVE

The Sophomores are a happy lot.

They think they're wise, don't say they're not,
Among their ranks are the wise and dumb,
Some are for duty and some for fun.

Harris Robinson, the president,
For Mahel Dodds has cast his net.
Mahel is also queen of the Apps,
Her merry ways win all the chaps.

Georgie Porgie Puddin' and Pie,
Can kiss the girls and they never cry.
The Katzenjammer Kids are Johnnie and Russe'l,
To escape their pranks you'll have to hustle.

Ara Alexander is buddy to all,
And manager and captain of basket ball.
Lucille Dodds is meek and quiet,
Much unlike Miss Polly Fite.

Carl Young is to us King Sol,
He furnishes the heat at Adams Hall.
Fitty Hill is the kind that never thinks,
His mind is as mixed as are his drinks.

And then we have Voleria and Ke.
Who like Sophomores can never agree.
And there's the song bird Edward Kane,
And Sheik Mercer our country swain.

Alfredo Mooneyham, known as Mooney,
A mighty good fellow but a bit loony.
Leon Burnett is built for a runner,
But listen to his line—it's a hummer.

Zed Aydelott is serious and sincere,
While old Hooker doesn't worry or care.
Turner and Miller are strong for books,
And we all know it's Patterson for looks.

Harris and Thomas the chemistry sharks,
Find they can't mix studies with larks.
Givens Wright of the Student Council,
Is sought by each erring damsel.

In this class are many more still
Good representatives of the school on the Hill.
But it is not wise to mention them here,
For the price of space is very dear.

You the Sophomores of twenty-five,
In twenty-seven will be Seniors tried;
In twenty-eight and years to come
The world will judge you one by one.

Then prepare ye while ye may,
No time's as good as is today.
If while here you do your best
Facing the world you'll stand the test.

BURLESQUE FOR FRESHMAN CLASS

Seniors were born for great things,
 Sophs were born for small;
 But it is not recorded why
 Freshmen were born at all.

But listen dear readers and you shall hear tell
 Of our Freshman class' personnel.
 They're young and they're green, but they're not bad lot,
 Now listen and I'll tell you some ways that they've got.

Charles Howse is the president, and he's quite a dandy—
 With the girls is always handy.
 Shep is a lion 'mongst the ladies too,
 He always knows just what to do.

Who is it so happy all the day long?
 Who's always merrily humming a song?
 'Tis one whom people call Louise Kee—
 The charming queen of S. A. E.

A girl as popular as Mildred
 Really has no right to be sore—
 But no matter how many swains woo her
 She always hollers for Moore.

In classes Aubrey doesn't a thing
 But wonder when the bell will ring,
 Yet with the girls he's not so slow
 As Jimmie can probably tell you so.

Nat wishes on a star so bright
 For a date with Jacqueline every night.
 Some girls like soup and bouillon too,
 But Ryon will have nothing else but Stew.

Lillie Mai is not only football queen,
 But also o'er Tate's heart she rules supreme.
 Famous lovers — Bob and Cleo,
 A '25 edition of Juliet and Romeo.

"If you can't get along with one or two,
 You're much better off with three"—
 He puts this theory into practice too,
 Bob Howard from "Gay Paree."

Chip Upchurch for wit is noted,
 Than Shakespeare, she's more probably quoted.
 Tall, blond, good-looking is Sidney Pugh —
 And secretly adored by the ladies too.

Nell Cox the piano surely does play,
 She's also played Jack's heart away.
 A perfect dear is Alma Joe,
 Just ask the boys — they'll tell you so.

A confirmed philanderer is Claud Burnett,
 No one could help but discern it.
 I could tell you of others would space permit.
 But since it doesn't, right here I must quit.

Under the able direction of Mrs. A. W. Prince, the Conservatory has been making splendid progress. The enrollment has been increasing and this year shows marked success.

Mrs. Prince is widely known for her musical ability both as a teacher and as an artist. She has been organist at the First Baptist Church of this city since 1909; and Director of Conservatory of Music, Union University, since 1910.

The piano-forte occupies a place of dignity and value, and rightly deserves treatment commensurate with its place as a factor in musical education. Post-graduate, graduate, and work for teachers of piano is offered.

MRS. EDWARD E. TALIAFERRO
Head of Department

The Voice Department is indeed fortunate in having at its head Mrs. Edward E. Taliaferro.

Mrs. Taliaferro is a native of this city. The enrollment of the Department is indeed increasing and the outlook for the coming year is very promising. Mrs. Taliaferro has studied with the best teachers in America. For several years she had a private studio in Nashville. She was elected head of the Voice Department in Union University in the fall of 1924. Under her leadership, the Department shows much development and we are sure this will steadily increase.

PROF. RAYMOND GUYON

Head of Department

With the beginning of the year of 1923-24, Union University saw a new department in action. It was then that Union first added this department of Fine Arts Courses. The school has not mis-judged the need of this department and a large number of students enrolled for this work.

Mr. Guyon is a capable teacher and director, having been director of several large orchestras and bands. His mastery of the stringed and wind instruments shows his ability, intellectuality and musicianship.

The University band and orchestra are making much progress, and we feel sure that the future shall be bright for the entire department.

MISS CHARLOTTE WATSON
Director

Under the able direction of Miss Charlotte Watson the Department of Home Economics has made splendid progress. The enrollment is more than double that of last year. Miss Watson has charge of the entire science division of Home Economics.

Union University now offers courses leading to a B.S. degree in Home Economics which qualifies a graduate to teach in any Smith-Hughes or Vocational High School department. Teacher training and related art courses are included in the curriculum.

A six-room cottage is furnished and decorated for senior students taking laboratory courses in Home Management. They occupy the house for one term, assuming the responsibility of household operations under the direction of a supervisor.

The girls have organized a Home Ec. Club and are doing splendid work for the department.

STEW ENDEAVORING TO BREAK THROUGH IN U. T. DOC. GAME

ROY STEWART

Halfback 172 Pounds

One of the best halfbacks ever seen on a Union University gridiron. He won the respect of all, especially that of his fellow players. He will be back next year to help the Bull Dogs work their way into the ranks of the best teams of the South.

R. A. TATE

Halfback 170 Pounds

Tate's last year on the team was a glorious one. He went through the opponent's line as if it were made of dummies. When a first down was needed Tate was sure to be called on. The "Bull Dogs" will miss this very valuable man next year and his position will be hard to fill.

JOE PARKER

Quarterback 160 Pounds

Parker leaves Union this year with the friendship and respect of all the fellows. He could sure "tote" that oval on a broken-field run and is considered one of the best quarterbacks that ever generated the Bull Dogs. He was voted best all-around man by the team.

ROBERT WESTMORELAND

Fullback 180 Pounds

Captain Westmoreland proved to be as good a fullback as he was a tackle. He could always be counted on to make a gain when it was needed. He is a great fighter and led his team in great style.

"SEE THE CRISS-CROSS"

ALFRED MOONEYHAM

Fullback 180 Pounds

"Frog Foot" fought hard in carrying the old pig skin. He still holds his reputation as a line plunger. When his opponents saw him coming they "shore did shift 'em dogs." He was also a good man on the defense.

GRADY EVANS

Center-Guard 200 Pounds

"Big Boy Grad" was out last season on account of an injured knee. In the first game this season he slightly injured it again but after a short rest he was back in his old stride of two years ago. He will be back next year ready to hit Alabama hard.

THURMAN MCLEAN

End 175 Pounds

"Mack" was a bulwark on the defense and a master of the situation on the offense. He was a sure tackler and a good receiver of passes. He was always a terror to his opponents. He leaves this year with many honors and the respect of all.

CHARLIE DODDS, Captain-Elect

Guard-Tackle 173 Pounds

"Charlie Our Boy" was dependable, aggressive, and very consistent. He will be back early in the '25 season to start his Bull Dogs to work. By his hard work he will be able to lead the Bull Dogs through a real successful season.

"HERE COMES THE RUNNER AROUND THE END"

RAYMOND JUINGER

Guard 190 Pounds

"Rabbit" Juinger always hit hard and quick, occasionally "Dug Under" but when he came out he was hard to handle. He was characterized by his hard work and true fighting spirit. He will be back next year to don a Bull Dog uniform.

BENNIE MERCER

Tackle 185 Pounds

Those who saw him at Alabama need no introduction as to his tenacity and fighting spirit. He could always be depended on to get the man who tried coming over him. He was an earnest worker, a loyal fighter who never stopped until the final whistle blew.

W. A. PENNINGTON

End 170 Pounds

"Preacher" did not make his letter until his Senior year, but he played the game like an all-American. It was next to impossible for the opponent to gain around his end and he was "death" on forward passes. There was not a more determined fighter on the team.

ELLIS ECKSTEIN

Center 190 Pounds

This was "Skinney's" first and last year as he leaves Union in June. He had the tenacity of a true Bull Dog and never said "Give up." He was one of our hardest scrappers.

"STEW NABBED THIS ONE"

JACK HARRIS

End 165 Pounds
Jack made his first letter in football this year. He always played hard, was a game fighter and through his loyalty won an everlasting place in the hearts of the spectators and his teammates.

CLAUDE BURNETT

Guard 185 Pounds
Claude made good his first year. He had to fight hard for his place, however, he had the determination which won out. He will be back next year ready to enter the first fray.

WALTER SHEPARD

Tackle 175 Pounds
"Shep" was a very aggressive player. He made the team his first year. He is expected to be back next year to don a football uniform with his fellow-Bulldogs. He is a clean sport and a hard fighter.

JACOB JOHNSON

Tackle 180 Pounds
Johnson was one of the most enduring fighters that ever wore a Bulldog uniform. He fought like a veteran all the time. Johnson got a letter and also won a likable place in the hearts of his teammates his first year in Union.

JOHN JONES

Guard 185 Pounds

"Hungry" was late in getting started but after he once got under way he sure did show his stuff. This is Jones' first year in Union and he is to be commended for making a letter his first year, especially after getting such a late start.

RESULTS OF SEASON

Union Terriers had a short season in 1924-1925, only playing five games. They met some of the strongest teams the south can claim, including Peabody, Ole Miss (2), and Y. W. C. A. (2).

With many of this year's letter girls back the outlook for 1925-1926 is very bright.

The Union University Branch of the Four Square League of America was chartered May 1, 1923. The first meetings were held in the Callopean Literary Society Hall on the first Thursday night of each month. With this beginning we have grown and developed until now we have thirty members, every one prominent in Union activities. We are proud of our achievements this year and feel that we are better situated to be of benefit to more of the young men.

The purpose of this organization is that each member live up to the principles suggested by our name and be "Four Square" to all the world.

KNOW YOUR OPPORTUNITY!

Opportunity is ever present! Acres of diamonds have been discovered where least expected! Wealth, glory, success, often is where we stand. Before we go away to prospect let us first investigate at home.

At the great inspirational convention of this Company held last January at Atlantic City, such notable speakers as the Hon. William Jennings Bryan, Dr. Russell H. Conwell, "Gold Rule" Nash, Fred B. Smith, Rabbi Wise and others, pointed out that life's greatest opportunities are found close at hand.

The shrewdest of all the World's shoppers, the American woman—knows her opportunity, for experience has taught her that as a result of the outstanding buying power of this great National Institution she can enjoy savings in this Store and in every one of the 571 J. C. Penney Co. Stores, that are peerless.

Your opportunity is here! Will you grasp it?
